The AGG Advantage

For decades, investors have looked to bonds to provide balance to their stock portfolios. Consider the iShares Core U.S. Aggregate Bond ETF (AGG), which offers three key benefits that can help strengthen the core of your portfolio and help you invest for the long haul.

1. Broad Bond Access in A Single Fund

AGG provides access to 6,000+ bonds and offers exposure to 7 unique sectors as represented in the broad U.S. bond market. (Figure. 1)

2. The Power of Diversification

The broad bond market can provide a cushion to the ups and downs of stock investments.

3. Low Cost, Tax Efficient

AGG's low cost and tax-efficient track record can help you keep more of what you earn. The fund offers U.S. bond exposure for a fraction of the cost of purchasing the individual bonds.

Investment return and principal value of an investment will fluctuate so that an investor's shares, when sold, may be worth more or less than the original cost. Current performance may be lower or higher than the performance quoted. Performance data current to the most recent month end may be obtained by visiting www.iShares.com or www.blackrock.com. Shares of ETFs are bought and sold at market price (not NAV) and are not individually redeemed from the Fund. Brokerage commissions will reduce returns. Market returns are based upon the midpoint of the bid/ask spread at 4:00 p.m. eastern time (when NAV is normally determined for most ETFs), and do not represent the returns you would receive if you traded shares at other times.

Carefully consider the Funds' investment objectives, risk factors, and charges and expenses before investing. This and other information can be found in the Funds' prospectuses and, if available, summary prospectuses, which may be obtained by visiting www.iShares.com or www.blackrock.com. Read the prospectus carefully before investing.

Investing involves risk, including possible loss of principal.

Fixed income risks include interest-rate and credit risk. Typically, when interest rates rise, there is a corresponding decline in bond values. Credit risk refers to the possibility that the bond issuer will not be able to make principal and interest payments.

Diversification may not protect against market risk or loss of principal.

Transactions in shares of ETFs will result in brokerage commissions and will generate tax consequences. All regulated investment companies are obliged to distribute portfolio gains to shareholders.

An investment in the Fund is not insured or guaranteed by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation or any other government agency and its return and yield will fluctuate with market conditions.

The iShares Funds are distributed by BlackRock Investments, LLC (together with its affiliates, "BlackRock").
