

iShares 12(d)(1) Exemptive Order

Ineligible Funds

The Securities and Exchange Commission granted the U.S. iShares Funds registered under the Investment Company Act of 1940 (the "1940 Act"), (collectively "iShares Funds") an exemptive order (the "iShares Order") which permits open-end management investment companies registered under the 1940 Act ("Investing Funds") to invest in certain iShares Funds in excess of the limits under Section 12(d)(1)(A) of the 1940 Act by executing a participation agreement ("Agreement") and complying with the conditions in the iShares Order and representations in the Agreement.

Certain U.S. iShares Funds, however, may not be acquired pursuant to the iShares Order in excess of the Section 12(d)(1)(A) limits of the 1940 Act ("Ineligible Funds"). Those U.S. iShares Funds are as follows:
