All registered investment companies are obliged to distribute portfolio gains to shareholders at year's end regardless of performance. Trading ETFs will also generate tax consequences and transaction expenses. The information provided is not intended to be tax advice. Tax consequences of dividend distributions may vary by individual taxpayer. There is no guarantee that dividends will be paid.

To receive a distribution, you must have been a registered shareholder of the fund on the record date. Distributions were paid to shareholders on the payment date. Past distributions are not indicative of future trends. Please consult your tax professional or financial adviser for more information regarding your tax situation.

Dividends and other distributions by a Fund are generally treated under the Internal Revenue Code as received by the shareholders at the time the dividend or distribution is made. However, any dividend or distribution declared by a Fund in October, November or December of any calendar year and payable to shareholders of record on a specified date in such a month shall be deemed to have been received by each shareholder on December 31 of such calendar year and to have been paid by the Fund no later than such December 31, provided such dividend is actually paid by the Fund during January of the following calendar year.
